

LIEBERMANN S

Restaurant und Café im Jüdischen Museum Berlin

Are you planning your evening event outside the Crowne Plaza Hotel?

The Restaurant Liebermanns is located inside the Jewish Museum of Berlin, one of the most visited museums of Germany, which is a gastronomic jewel combined with a vivid history museum. The aromatic cuisine of the Liebermanns presents a creative new line of the traditional Jewish cuisine. Generally no pork meat, shellfish and crustaceans is used, however the food is not prepared kosher.

Oriental Dinner at the Restaurant Liebermanns

- Transfer: We organise your bus shuttle to the Restaurant Liebermanns and back to the hotel.
- Dinner: We serve our typical Oriental Buffet. Upon your arrival at the restaurant the Oriental starters will be placed on the table for your guests already. Main courses and dessert will be offered as buffet.
- Beverages: Our offer includes a beverage package for your stay at our restaurant. We welcome you with our well known "Liebermanns Cocktail" (dry sparkling wine with Grenadine syrup and pomegranate kernels). With the Oriental buffet we serve Israeli house wine, mineral water, apple juice, orange juice, beer, coffee & tea.

Our offer
€75,00 per person

Our offer is bookable on request from 30 persons up till max. 80 persons and is subject to availability. It includes the transfer from the hotel to the restaurant and return, the Oriental Buffet, a beverage package (3 hours), the room hire for the exclusive use of the restaurant, Jewish-Israeli background music as well as the cost for security as the museum closes at 8 p.m.

We are looking forward to receiving your reservation!
Tel: +49 (0)30 25 93 97 60